

“-cial/-tial”

/ʃə l/

Underline the -cial or -tial. Pronounce the words.

facial      racial      social      glacial      crucial      judicial commercial      beneficial      superficial      artificial      financial partial      martial      spatial      nuptial      initial      impartial substantial      essential      influential      confidential      residential sequential      circumstantial      deferential      preferential

Fill in the blanks with the above words.

1. He had to make a _____ decision regarding a plan of action.
2. The stockbroker provides important _____ information to his clients.
3. Mr. Jones was an _____ leader in the city government.
4. The boy was skilled in the _____ arts.
5. Whatever he told his attorney is _____.
6. The workers made _____ progress on the construction project.
7. Learning to read is an _____ part of your education.
8. The referee has to be _____.
9. I am _____ to vanilla ice cream.
10. His _____ responsibilities were enormous.

“-cial/-tial”

/sh ə l/

Underline the -cial or -tial. Pronounce the words.

facial      racial      social      glacial      crucial      judicial commercial      beneficial      superficial      artificial      financial partial      martial      spatial      nuptial      initial      impartial substantial      essential      influential      confidential      residential sequential      circumstantial      deferential      preferential

Fill in the blanks with the above words.

1. He had to make a crucial decision regarding a plan of action.
2. The stockbroker provides important financial information to his clients.
3. Mr. Jones was an influential leader in the city government.
4. The boy was skilled in the martial arts.
5. Whatever he told his attorney is confidential.
6. The workers made substantial progress on the construction project.
7. Learning to read is an essential part of your education.
8. The referee has to be impartial.
9. I am partial to vanilla ice cream.
10. His judicial responsibilities were enormous.